DEDICATION

DEDICATION

We the Seniors of 1952 wish to dedicate our annual to Wayne Weaver for the wonderful job he has done. It is through him that we had a warm school house to come to in the winter, a clean school house, and supplies always on hand when needed. Mr. Weaver was always present to do his job during the long hours, both late and early. His presence required much patience and hard work.

Yes, we owe much to Mr. Weaver for his fine job performed for the last 30 years.

FOREWORD

It has been the aim of the staff to make this annual, "Memories" a true reflection of our high school life. Particularly the activities and achievements of each individual the past year.

Our earnest hope is that in years to come, within these pages we may relive in memory our high school days, and may recapture the joys of the pleasant experiences now so dear to our hearts.

APPRECIATION

We, the seniors of 52, wish to express our kindest regards to the entire faculty, each of whom has contributed toward making our High School days most pleasant and successful.

We wish to thank our parents who have helped us in many ways and have sacrificed many times for us.

We can never show enough gratitude to Mr. Groth for his time and patience that he has given us in constructing this annual.

CLASS HISTORY

In September 1940, a group of eighteen youngsters started to school. The class included: Anna Bea Nachbar, Ruth Snyder, Ardyth Orains, Anita Fletcher, Mary Alice Dible, Patricia Schimpf, Barbara Weaver, Grace Kear, Ronold Morrison, Earl Parks, Carl Larrick, Charles Gottfried, John Harford, Mary Ellen Dilley, Bonnie Traxler, George Thiel, Vencil Fletcher, and Dencil Fletcher, Miss Senff was our first teacher.

Our second year saw us with the same teacher as the previous year. We lost John Harford, Vencil Fletcher, Dencil Fletcher, and Anita Fletcher. Raymond Bridgeford and Gay Brown joined us.

Mrs. Paul Schoenberger was our third grade teacher. Joining us were Margery Koehler, Donald Davidson, Kenneth Jacobs, Cletus Smith, and Pauline Spitler, while leaving us were Charles Gottfried, George Thiel, Mary Alice Dible, Earl Parks, Raymond Bridgeford, Gay Brown, Carl Larrick, and Mary Ellen Dilley.

The forth grade was just another year. We lost only one member of our class, Patricia Schimpf. Our teacher was the same as the third grade.

With summer vacation over we went to a new room and a new teacher. Mrs. William Worth. One member left us, Kenneth Jacobs.

In the sixth grade we went back to the same room but had a new teacher who was Mrs. Melford Binau. We gained two new members, Dora Wright and Margaret Brooks, while Ruth Snyder left us.

Next year was a very exciting one as we now got to go upstairs. Mr. Charles Crook was our sponsor and we added three new pupils to our class. They were Joe Rowland, Imogene Davis, and Onalee Stover.

As we looked forward to our eighth year at school, we lost Joe Rowland and Imogene Davis but three new members joined our class, Pat Fulk, Marie Arnold, and Alfred Brooks. We had Mr. Crook for a sponsor again.

The first year of our high school days will long be remembered because of initiation and many other activities. Maeola Arnold joined us while Marie Arnold left us. Miss Nancy Diamond was our sponsor.

Our sophomore year two of our class mates left us. They were Alfred Brooks, and Anna Bea Nachbar. Mrs. Adeline White was our sponsor.

We shall remember our junior year as we gave our first play entitled, "A Ready Made Family." We lost two members, Margaret Brooks and Maeola Arnold. Our sponsor that year was Mrs. Harriet Hofer.

At last we're here to our last year with the same pupils that we had our Junior year. Our class play "Girls Are Like That," was very successful. Mr. Paul Groth was our sponsor for our Senior year. We have five members of the class to go all twelve years together. They are as follows: Ardyth Orians, Barbara Weaver, Ronold Morrison, Grace Kear, and Bonnie Traxler. The other members are Dora Wright, Pauline Spitler, Pat Fulk, Donald Davidson, Margery Koehler.

This year is also the first year that two generations have attended all twelve years at Salem High School. They are Mrs. Garnetta Traxler and her daughter Bonnie Traxler.

Mary Jane Poole	A problem child	Barbara Weaver
Essie	A cousin	Margery Koehler
Mom Poole	A young mother	Pauline Spitler
Virginia Poole	Her favorite daughter	Ardyth Orians
Lillian Root	A Fixer	Dora Wright
Aunt Jane	A wealthy woman	Grace Kear
Jack Everett	A radio announcer	Bonnie Traxler
Jimmy Shields	A stranger in town	Ronold Morrison
Helen	Jack's sister	Barbara Schmidt
Tommy Davis	A fiance	Robert Murphy

STORY OF PLAY

Virginia Poole, the central figure in the comedy, is looking forward to a long deferred meeting with her fiance, Tommy Davis, who has been away at college. She wants to present him to her visiting aunt, who in turn has promised to settle a substantial sum on Virginia when the latter announces her engagement. At the last moment, fickle Tommy wires that he has decided a career and takes precedence over marriage. This leaves Virginia holding the bag without a fiance but not for long. Little sister, Mary Jane a precocious brat, tells her cousin Essie that she has been carrying on a correspondence with the famous radio announcer, Jack Everett, and when learned that Jack is making a personal appearance in town she is frantic.

In the meantime, Lillian Root, Virginia's helpful girlfriend prevails upon Jimmy Shields, just in from Chicago to act as Ginn's fiance for the duration of Auntie's visit, when lo and behold, Tommy jauntily drops in.

Mother Poole has been called away to settle an estate and this would seem fortunate for the harassed Virginia and so it is until Mother suddenly returns to find daughter with two, too many fiances.

Then too, a strange woman named Helen who is quite "friendly" with Jack appears on the scene.

What happens from here on will be a delight to each one, as we prove to you that "GIRLS ARE LIKE THAT".

SYNOPSIS OF ACTS

Act 1 The living-room of the Martyn home. About twelve o'clock noon of a day in summer.
Act 2 The same. Fifteen minutes later.
Act 3 The same. A few moments later.

STORY OF THE PLAY

Here's the situation. Agnes Martyn, a widow, while vacationing meets an old sweetheart, Henry Turner, a widower and they become engaged. Neither tells the other of the children at home, three in one household and two in the other. The youngsters, having heard of the big surprise and not feeling any too good about it, plan to upset the matrimonial apple cart by acting their worst before their prospective step-parents. One will have fits, another will talk baby talk, a third plays the role of a holy terror. Sammie becomes a kleptomaniac and worse, Doris, having had an operation, will harp on that. What a mix-up and what fun in the telling. After almost two hours of side splitting laughter Agnes and Henry emerge victorious and the "kids" are ready to accept their new parents.

CLASS PROPHECY

I've had very busy day teaching and for relaxation I always read the paper. Won't you take a couple of minutes and read the paper with me. There are quite a few items that we will be interested in tonight.

In the front page are a number of army pictures. One of the generals looks familiar because it is none other than Donald Davidson, one of my classmates. Don sure has made a name for himself in the army. He has traveled all over the world. Wonder if he will become a five star general?

The next is the birth section. I see where the former Barbara Weaver had twins, a boy and a girl. Barbara always wanted twins so I guess she is a very happy mother.

In the society column two more of my classmates have their names. Grace Kear, a noted speaker of the year, was speaker at a luncheon in honor of Pauline Spitler, an opera singer. Pauline just returned from Europe where she had been on a tour singing. Grace has spoken at many of the important meetings in New York and Washington and is soon going to Europe.

For a laugh or two let's turn to the comic page. Tonight they have a new comic. It's really a good one and why shouldn't it be. The cartoonist is none other than Margery Koehler. Marge sure has picked a good subject to draw a cartoon on. "Cats and Kittens".

There always are a few advertisement pages in a newspaper and this paper has a plenty. Ardyth Orians is advertising her beauty parlor. The name of her parlor is A O Beauty Shop. A O standing for Always Out.

On the marriage page a picture of Dora Wright appears. She married a millionaire from Florida. Dora sure will get a suntan down in Florida. Come back and visit us Dora.

The last page is the sports page. Ronold Morrison made headlines on this page for making a world's basketball record the other night. Ronnie is one of the best basketball players in the world. In the middle of the page is a picture of a lady and five girls. The lady is one of my former classmates Patricia Fulk. The five girls are her children. Pat is teaching them to become cheerleaders for the Cornhuskers. Let's hope the Cornhuskers win when they cheer.

Since we are at the end of the paper we shall lay it aside for tonight but I shall never forget my classmates at Salem and the enjoyable times we had together.

CALENDAR

Sept. 4-School starts. Everyone glad to be back, I think. Oh! Too bad girls he's married.

5-High School girls still haven't learned how to read notes in music.

6-Whose team are you playing on Barbara Weaver and who were you thinking about, was it Clarence???

7-Baseball game here today. Harpster 9, Salem 5. Oh nuts!

8-Vacation already, goody goody, Jr's and Sr's decided Mr. Hamman should be a preacher.

17-Back again. Played Nevada 9-0. Good to have you back Don Davidson.

18-Ball game at Marseilles, we won 9-4. Senior girls went. Marge lost her hat, or did some boy take it???

19-The girls played football in Phys Ed. Suppose we could beat Carey???

20-Everybody anxious for initiation especially the Freshmen.

21-What is everyone laughing at? Could it be the Freshmen???

24-4 H hayride-Senior girls go with Freshmen boys. Oh boy! Mr. Groth does your face hurt?

26-Pauline and Bill H. hold hands at Wharton game. We won 5-2.

27-Chemistry quiz-Oh brother?!!

28-What happened Bozo? Why don't the girls like you???

Oct. 1-What happened in third period study hall? Miss Dawson's nerves are wrecked.

2-Played Scutch there. We lost, and played in the corn field.

3-Why are the Freshmen girls mad at Senior girls? Could they be jealous??

5-F.H.A. meeting. Seniors got play books.

8-Picked play parts out. Play practice after school.

9-They tried to tell us we are too young. Two 8th graders must be in love huh?

10-Seniors looked very nice today. Went to Fostoria and got pictures taken. Went to show in afternoon. More fun.

12-Seniors got proofs of picture. Oh how cute!!

17-Get to work Seniors. The annual things came in.

18-The Seniors send back their picture proofs.

19-Wondering what the gossip is about? Ask the grade teachers.
